

G4 – Membership and Registration Grade Matrix

Grade	Post-Nominal	Qualification Requirement	Experience	Who is this for?	Professional Qualifications
Commercial/Educational	N/A	N/A	N/A	For companies, organisations, and educational establishments with an interest in agricultural engineering, land-based technology and related scientific subjects and a keenness to be part of the IAgrE family.	N/A
Student/Pre-Professional	None	None needed but must be involved in agricultural engineering, land-based technology or a related scientific subject.	None needed.	Those following an apprenticeship, vocational, academic or post graduate programme in agricultural engineering, land-based technology or a related scientific subject and in the case of a Pre-professional in the year following graduation.	Not Eligible
Affiliate	AIagrE	None needed	None needed.	Not qualified as an agricultural engineer but have an interest in the industry and/or work in an allied area.	Not Eligible
Technician	TIagrE	Technical qualification in agricultural engineering, land-based technology or related engineering/scientific subject at Level 3 e.g. extended diploma or an advanced apprenticeship. Part completion of an accredited degree programme, including industrial placement is also accepted for Technician grade	Completion of industrial placement or working in the industry.	For those who are qualified at a vocational/technical level and have completed an apprenticeship or extended diploma. Working in the industry but with early experience and development in the workplace. Keen to be part of the IAgrE family and seeking a cost-effective way of getting involved and benefiting. This grade may include service engineering technicians and instructors/trainers.	Engineering Technician (EngTech)
Associate Member	AMIAgrE	Advanced Apprenticeship, Level 3 diploma, foundation degree, degree or post graduate degree in engineering/agricultural engineering, land-based technology or a related scientific subject.	Less than 5 years post qualification.	For those that have not yet been qualified for 5 years and are starting to establish themselves in industry. Likely to be working towards professional registration at an appropriate level. Keen and willing to contribute to IAgrE Corporate Affairs. Note, after 5 years relevant industrial training and experience Associate Members are automatically upgraded to Member grade.	Engineering Technician (EngTech) Registered Environmental Practitioner (REnvP)
Member	MIagrE	Advanced Apprenticeship, Level 3 diploma, foundation degree, degree or post graduate degree in engineering/agricultural engineering, land-based technology or a related scientific subject.	Typically, but not exclusively, at least five years industrial training and experience or over 15 years of appropriate industrial training and experience for those without the requisite academic qualification.	Meets the requirements of Associate Member with additional skills and experience permitting a higher level of professional registration.	Engineering Technician (EngTech) Incorporated Engineer (IEng) Chartered Engineer (CEng) Registered Environmental Practitioner (REnvP) Chartered Environmentalist (CEnv)
Fellow	FIagrE	Advanced Apprenticeship, Level 3 diploma, foundation degree, degree or post graduate degree in engineering/agricultural engineering, land-based technology or a related scientific subject.	Very well established and operating at a high level with typically, but not exclusively, at least five years industrial training and experience or over 15 years of appropriate industrial training and experience for those without the requisite academic qualification.	Outstanding individuals, highly experienced and respected, holding positions of considerable and sustained responsibility. Meets the requirements of Member grade, but with enhanced skills and significantly more experienced.	Incorporated Engineer (IEng) Chartered Engineer (CEng) Chartered Environmentalist (CEnv)