

IAgrE, your professional identity

Technical presentations
eNewsletters
Access to Landwards journal
Networking opportunities
Competitions & awards
Local branches
Careers guidance & Jobs and much more

A listed technician with the Institution of Agricultural Engineers demonstrates a high quality of education and training, compliance to our code of professional ethics and commitment to continual learning. In addition to displaying your professional identity, you get lots of other benefits, as above.

It is easy to join the IAgrE – simply complete the online application form Visit iagre.org for details

